

Prof. Philip Maxwell

Email address p.maxwell@curtin.edu.au

Telephone Number +61 (8) 9266 2360

Fax Number +61 (8) 9266 3764

Position Metana Minerals Professor of Mineral Economics

Teaching Responsibilities Natural resource economics, socioeconomic impacts, mineral markets and international minerals trade.

Research Interests Mineral market analysis. Minerals and economic development. Economics and management education. Regional economic disparities

Professional Affiliations Economic Society of Australia. American Economic Association, AusIMM. Regional Science Association. Mineral Economics and Management Society

Professional Experience Full time academic since 1973. Main appointments at Curtin and Deakin Universities. Visiting professor at University of Chile since 2004. Several other visiting appointments. Editor Resources Policy in 2007

Publications Co-author or editor of three textbooks and four monographs. Author or co-author of thirty-four refereed journal articles. Relevant publications in mineral economics include:

“The Coming Nickel Shakeout”, Minerals and Energy: Raw Materials Report, 14(1), 1999, 4-14.

“The Importance of Mining Services to the Western Australian Economy”, CEDA Information Paper No 63, December, 1999, 23p with Oliver Maponga, “The Internationalisation of the Australian Mineral Industry in the 1990s”, Resources Policy, 26(4), (December, 2000), 199-210.

“Considering the Future of Kalgoorlie Boulder: The Challenges Facing A Large Remote Mining Town”, Australasian Journal of Regional Studies, 7 (1), 2001, 63 – 82.

with Oliver Maponga. "The Fall and Rise of African Mining", Minerals and Energy: Raw Materials Report, 16 (3), 2001, 9 – 26. (also reprinted in William G. Moseley, Taking Sides : Clashing Views on Controversial African Issues 2003 and 2006 McGraw-Hill Dushkin.)

with Pasquale Cesare, "Mineral Industry Involvement in the Development of Mine Closure Legislation in Indonesia," Natural Resources Forum, 27(1), (March, 2003), 42-52.

"Chile's recent copper-driven prosperity: Does it provide lessons for other mineral rich developing nations?" Minerals and Energy, 19 (1), (March, 2004), 16 – 31.

with Christian Moscoso and Arlene Ebensperger, "The World Lithium Market Its Recent Evolution and Future Prospects", Resources Policy, 30(3), (September, 2005), 218-231.

with Rami al Rawashdeh, "Are minerals a blessing or a curse? Some reflections on the recent debate," Resources, Energy and Development 2(2), (September, 2005), 107-123.

"Was there a nickel shakeout?" Minerals and Energy, 21(3), 2006, 42-56.

Editor (assisted by Pietro Guj), Australian Mineral Economics. Melbourne: Australasian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, 2006, 240p.